

Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System (WHMIS) Training Courses

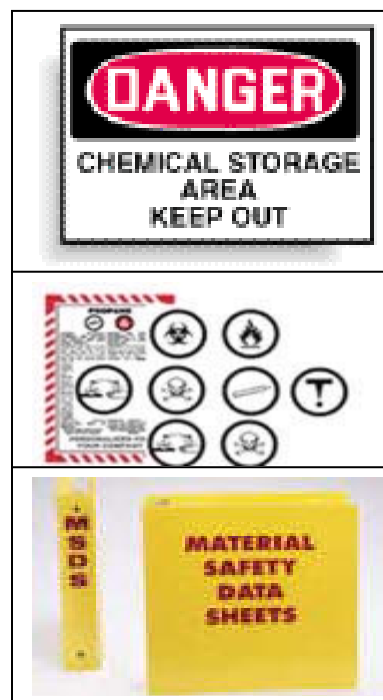

The Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System (WHMIS) applies to hazardous materials that are intended for use at the workplace. It was developed to ensure that the worker has the information required to work safely with hazardous materials.

Who Should Attend This Course

If your job requires working with, or supervising persons working with controlled products, then you need WHMIS training.

Course Outline

Introduction to WHMIS
Definitions
The Components of WHMIS Responsibilities
Exemptions
Classifications and Symbols
WHMIS labels
Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS)
Placards
PPE
WHMIS Check List

ALL-TECH Environmental Services Limited is a full service Occupational Health, Safety & Environmental Consulting Company. For more information on our many other services contact:

Mr. Larry Koughan, CET, CRSP
Branch Manager
(902) 629-0173 (bus)
(902) 569-5453 (fax)
lkoughan@toalltech.com

Or visit our website @ www.alltechenvironmental.com